

Original Idea Post

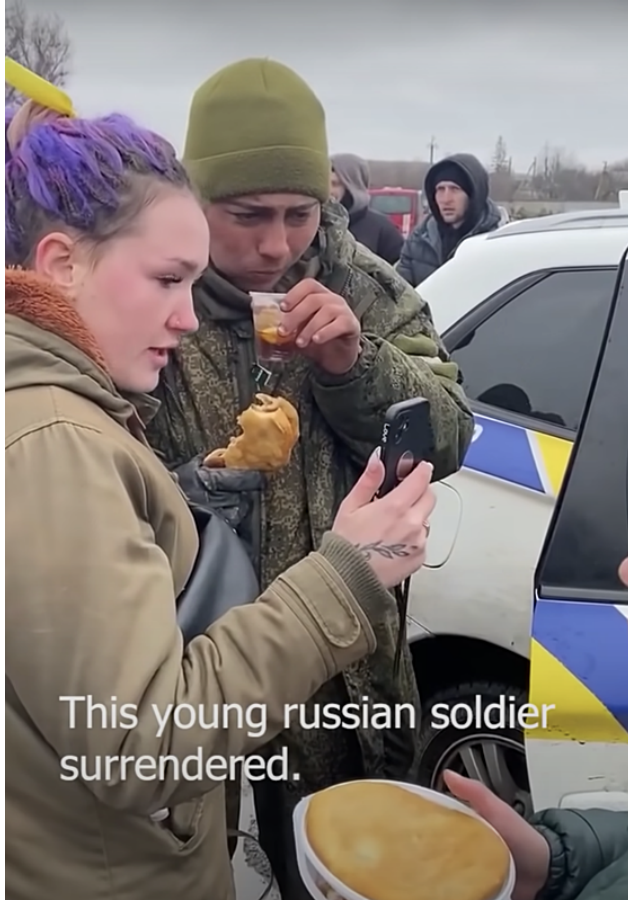

YOU CANT CAMOUFLAGE THE TRUTH | 03.04.22

There are so many reports of Russian soldiers, many of them very young, who were threatened, lied to, tricked. They were told they were taking part in exercises or that they were liberating the Ukrainian people from a Nazi regime. Its very hard to get the truth into Russia with almost every independent news source shut down, even social media is getting squeezed. Look at this video of a young soldier and his emotional reaction when some Ukrainians shown him kindness.

What if we could get dozens of videos like this sent back home. Show the Russian people what is really going on in Ukraine. Could be powerful coming from their own soldiers. Not sure how we could get them through Putin's propaganda machine but maybe there's a way.

Will Burns

Love this. Great idea. (Remember you can embed videos into your post, which makes them playable right here)

03.04.22

Anonymous

This is so powerful, Ernie. Nothing beats the truth. It seems that we could create these for the world not just Russia. Can we build a Tik Tok channel for them to live?

03.04.22

Ernie Schenck

Definitely the world. I was thinking how can we maybe light a fire in Russia where there's a chance the videos might get seen by insiders who could actually take Putin down in a way the rest of the world can't.

03.04.22
