IMAGINARY CHICKEN KYIV | 03.07.22

Every restaurant around the world, regardless of cuisine, adds "Imaginary Chicken Kyiv" to their menu as a fundraiser. Perhaps with the funds going to Jose Andres' World Central Kitchen, currently feeding refugees on the Ukraine border.

Building: Love this. I think it should be bigger. If every restaurant in NYC for example put Chicken Kyiv on their menu for one week it could get a ton of attention and other restaurants around the world would follow. If you could get Top Chef to do one episode just on Chicken Kyiv, that would be a massive win too.

Its a wonderful idea but I agree with A. It needs to be bigger. The Top Chef thing is awesome.

Love this idea. Either Top Chef or Food Network "A Day of Chicken Kyiv" perhaps? Where every show from "Chopped" to "Beat Bobby Flay" focuses on that.
